

May 5, 2016

Julia Frankosky
Government Information Librarian
Michigan State University Libraries
366 W. Circle Drive Db6
East Lansing, MI 48824-1048

Dear Ms. Frankosky,

I am writing to personally thank you for conducting an excellent FDLP Academy webinar on April 26, 2016. Your program, "Hitting Pay Dirt - Text Mining Government Sources," had 104 attendees who are all very interested in the content and found the webinar to be very informative.

I appreciate your continued outreach to members of the FDLP. Thank you for recording the program for the FDLP Academy archive. Our library community appreciates being able to learn where and when it fits into their schedules.

The U.S. Government Publishing Office (GPO) values our partnership with the Michigan State University Libraries very highly. My staff and I are so thankful for information professionals like yourself who donate so much time and are so very skilled at teaching about your library's information resources.

Sincerely,

LAURIE B. HALL
Acting, Superintendent of Documents