An aerial, high-angle photograph of the United States Capitol building in Washington, D.C. The building's iconic white dome is the central focus, surrounded by the neoclassical architecture of the wings. The surrounding cityscape, including other government buildings and streets, is visible in a lighter, semi-transparent overlay. The text is centered over the image.

“Our mission is to become the established site of record for unedited media, news and information from all official government sources, providing reliable and comprehensive value-added access to government communications. Through early discovery of critical information, we will help users predict the likely course of government decision-making on issues critical to their interests while better positioning them to influence outcomes in their favor.”
