Hi [REDACTED]

Are you looking for policy-related materials (like this Brookings Institute report Anti-CRT bills are aimed to incite the GOP base - not parents)? For policy literature, I recommend searching in Policy File Index.

The education database Education Source also has a good amount of policy documents, as well as academic journals.

There are also these reports from CQ Press that provide a good overview of some of the issues:

Politics and Education: Is polarization forever changing U.S. schools?

Public Schools' Challenges: Can they help students recover from pandemic losses?

Teaching About Racism: Should concepts of critical race theory be part of classroom instruction?

Political Science Complete is a good choice for more of a politics-focus. I tried using the search terms

Culture conflict AND race

Here is one of the articles I found: The State of American Federalism 2022–2023: Escalating Culture Wars in the States

Are any of these the sorts of materials you are interested in? I'm happy to meet with you over Zoom to talk more about your project. Here's my availability for the rest of this week:

Wednesday, Feb. 21: between 8:30-11:30am, between 2-3:30pm

Thursday, Feb. 22: between 9am-2:30pm

Friday, Feb. 23: between 9am-11am, between 1pm-4pm

Best,
Julia

Subject: Research Help

Hello Julia,

I hope that you are doing well. I am a 4th year PhD student in the College of Education, and I am writing my comprehensive exam. Do you have any resources on culture war politics in education? The topic for my comprehensive exam focuses on culture wars and their connection to issues of racial justice and equity in schools for Black students.

Please let me know if you have any suggestions or have time to discuss this project. Thank you, I am looking forward to hearing from you.

Thanks,
